It's time to wave good-bye to boredom, and set out for the ultimate escape to the world's only 6-star destination, the Quintessence Hotel. The Quintessence Hotel is where luxury, pampering, and privacy reign supreme. Just a few hours away by jet, and you're embracing the white sands and emerald-blue waters of Quintessence. It almost doesn't appear real. The sun shines bright here every day, welcoming you and your family to a setting of bespoke elegance. Experience the best dining in the Caribbean at Julians, with our Wine Spectator®-award-winning cellar. Add in a level of service unsurpassed by any standard of excellence, with a Haitian art collection curated for over 40 years by our famed owner, Geoffrey Fieger, and voila – Quintessence.

If you can afford it, you can't afford to miss it! If you long for the tranquility of a Caribbean Island sanctuary where attention to detail is only exceeded by the attention given to you, by all means, be our guest.
